We are the peo - ple who are blessed of the Lord. (C) November 7, 1995

We are the people who will walk hand in hand.
We are God's army, marching out through the land.
We are the people who will inherit the land.

We are the people who will help others stand.
We are the people, we are the people.

We are the people who are called to praise God's name. We are the people who will always remain.
Boldly showing righteousness to a people that shall be born.
Always & always, All ways & all ways.

We are the people called to praise the Lord.

We are the people who are called by God's name.
We are blessed as the nation whose God is the Lord.
people.
We are the people who will serve the Lord.

We are the people God has chosen for His own.
We are that people. We will strive to be that
